ROYAL ONTARIO MUSEUM GOVERNORS

Ellen Moore

Ellen J. Moore is the President of Chubb Insurance Company of Canada, and Chubb Life Insurance Company of Canada.

Ellen completed her BA in Accounting and Business/Management at Thomas Edison State College, and has held several leadership positions during her career at Chubb; including: Managing Director and Senior Vice President for regional operations in the Mid-Atlantic States of Washington DC, Maryland and Virginia; Vice President, Hartford, Connecticut branch operations; Vice President, Personal Insurance Canadian and Eastern U.S. territories. Ellen has been recognized as one of the insurance industries top women executives by both Business Insurance, and Canadian Insurance Top Broker magazines. After becoming a fourth time recipient of The Women's Executive Network's Canada's Most Powerful Women: Top 100 Award, Ellen has now been inducted into the Top 100 Hall of Fame. Ellen received the McGill University Management Achievement award, recognized for her Canadian business and community leadership. In 2014, Catalyst Canada Honours, which celebrates champions of women in Canadian business, named Ellen as Company Leader Champion for her commitment to the advancement of women's leadership.

Ellen is currently a Board member of the Insurance Bureau of Canada, and sits on the Royal Ontario Museum Board of Governors, and the Advisory Board of Catalyst, Inc. She is the President of the International Women's Forum for Canada, and is Co-Chair of Women in Insurance Cancer Crusade, Canadian Cancer Society's largest non-institutional fundraiser.
