NORTH ATLANTIC SAGA: SCOTLAND, THE FAROE ISLANDS, & ICELAND

JUNE 20–JULY 1, 2018
DEAR ROM TRAVELLERS,

To travel by sea is always to enter into the realm of living legends— as though the winds and the waves recall the spirits of those who have gone before. In the case of the North Atlantic, we enter the realm of those redoubtable Norse explorers: the Vikings!

These hardy Scandinavian seafarers roved from their colonies in Scotland to the Shetlands, the Orkneys, the Faroe Islands, and ultimately to Iceland, the paradise of the North Atlantic.

A mere millennium later, so shall we—aboard the Ocean Endeavour, on Adventure Canada’s North Atlantic Saga sailing from Aberdeen, to Reykjavik.

No open boats, oaken oars or flapping sails for us! We shall follow in the wake of the Vikings aboard the Ocean Endeavour, a comfortable, modern expedition-class vessel. Fine food and comfortable lodging are ours to enjoy—but a fleet of twenty Zodiacs will convey us to fiords and caves, cozy communities and clamouring cliffside colonies of seabirds.

Onboard, we’ll learn from recognized experts who will regale us with tales of the explorers of old; ashore, we’ll find ourselves wandering among Neolithic and Megalithic sites, visiting bustling communities and endless vistas, listening for the whispers of our Viking forebears!

Like them, we’ll marvel at standing stones, sea stacks and moody brochs. We’ll seek the soaring headlands of mystic islands and find there a warm welcome among folk who work the land and sea as their ancestors did. Following not just the Norse traders, but the early explorers and later the likes of the Hudson’s Bay Company, we’ll be charting a course into Canadian history as well, rediscovering the routes of the first European visitors to our own shores.

Between the ancient, yet modern cities of Aberdeen and Reykjavik, an unforgettable, timeless journey awaits: Adventure Canada’s North Atlantic Saga. I can’t wait! Won’t you join me on a voyage into living history?

I’d love to hear from you if you are interested in joining me. I can be reached by phone at 416.925.5891 or by email virginiavanvliet@rogers.com.

Emerging from the mists of legend, the north Atlantic isles are wonders of geology, ecology, and human history. From the craggy coastline of Scotland, past the staggering cliffs of the Faroe Islands to the volcanic plains of Iceland, this expedition charts a course unlike any other on Earth.

Join us as we explore ancient Neolithic ruins on rugged Celtic islands, and sail into the sagas of Norse explorers bound for far-flung Arctic shores. Hikers and bird-watchers alike will delight in the puffins and skuas that wheel over wave-battered headlands. You'll experience local culture in villages that have been occupied since ancient times, and meet modern-day fishermen working the same waters that fed their forebears.

Find seabird populations abounding in their vast nesting grounds. Photograph exquisite wildflowers in early summer bloom. Visit newborn islands, picturesque communities, and sprawling glaciers. Join the lucky few who have travelled in the wake of the Vikings from Aberdeen to Reykjavík—charting an ancient course between modern ports, amid the mythic islands of the north Atlantic!

INTENDED ITINERARY
JUNE 20–JULY 1, 2018

Day 1 and 2: Aberdeen, Scotland
Day 3: Stromness, Orkney Islands
Day 4: Fair Isle & Grutness, Shetland Islands
Day 5: Suðuroy Island and Sumba, Faroe Islands
Day 6: Tórshavn
Day 7: Western Faroe Islands
Day 8: Mykines Island
Day 9: At Sea ➔ Surtsey Island, Iceland
Day 10: Heimaey, Westman Islands
Day 11: Southwest Iceland
Day 12: Reykjavík, Iceland

This is our proposed itinerary. It is highly probable that weather, sea conditions, and unforeseen circumstances will not allow us to travel this exact route. Our Expedition Leader and the ship’s captain will determine our exact route day by day.
Day 1 and 2 | Aberdeen
Aberdeen—the Granite City, or the Silver City—is the third most populous urban area in Scotland. Many of Aberdeen’s buildings are of locally quarried granite; the high mica content of this stone can sparkle like silver. The traditional industries of fishing, paper-making, shipbuilding, and textiles, have been overtaken by the oil industry since discovery of North Sea oil in the 1970s. Aberdeen’s heliport is one of the busiest in the world. The city is famed for its forty-five parks, gardens, and floral displays. We board the Ocean Endeavour in the afternoon.

Day 2 | Stromness and Orkney
Off the north coast of mainland Scotland, Orkney has been settled for at least eight thousand years. Many Neolithic archeological sites have been preserved here, including villages, ceremonial sites, and burial chambers. The Kings of Norway held a strong presence here until the sixteenth century and Stromness, a historic old town on the eastern shore of the main island, is a remnant from that time. A staging area for ships heading west to North America, Stromness was the last last European port of call for Hudson’s Bay Company ships and for the Franklin Expedition of 1845. The ancient village of Skara Brae and the standing stones at Stenness and Brogdar are notable sights in Orkney, among fertile rolling hills dotted with Aberdeen Angus cattle.

Day 3 | Fair Isle, Shetland Islands
A key destination in Viking times, Fair Isle now harbours a hospitable population of some sixty residents who combine a respect for tradition with a modern outlook. It is also home to a National Trust Bird Observatory; over three hundred and fifty species of birds have been recorded here, including puffins and great skuas in substantial numbers. The local museum is dedicated to preserving island heritage, including the knitting of Fair Isle, is renowned the world over. The Jarlshof Prehistoric Norse settlement complex at the southern tip of the Shetlands spans more than four thousand years of human history.

Day 4 | Suðuroy Island and Sumba, Faroe Islands
The southwest coast of Suðuroy Island features dramatic cliffs that tower above the Atlantic Ocean. The western side of the island is a breeding site for seabirds, including northern fulmars, European storm petrels, European shags, black-legged kittiwakes, Atlantic puffins, common guillemots, and black guillemots. The village of Sumba—population 239—is a stronghold of Faroese chain dancing. Archaeological excavations have shown traces of occupation at Sumba as far back as the seventh century, making it one of the oldest villages in the Faroe Islands. Hiking is excellent in the foothills of nearby Beinisvøro Mountain, affording spectacular, panoramic views of the region.

Day 5 | Tórshavn, Faroe Islands
Tórshavn, literally, “Thor’s harbour,” is the Faroe Islands’ capital and largest town, with a population of 19,000. Vikings established their parliament on the Tinganes peninsula in 850. Early in the history of the settlement, it was the centre of the islands’ trade monopoly and the only legal place to buy and sell goods. Following the end of the Viking age, Tórshavn gradually grew into a permanent trading area; today it is a modern European town whose principal industries are tourism and fishing. Tórshavn Cathedral was first built in 1788 and has been the seat of the Bishop of the Faroe Islands since 1990.

Day 6 | Western Faroe Islands
The northwestern shores of Eysturoy and Streymoy islands boast some of the Faroes’ most spectacular coastlines and superb hiking opportunities. Towering cliffs, waterfalls, sea stacks, and rocks seemingly pulled from the ocean floor are scattered among picturesque coastal communities like Saksun, Gjogv, and Tjornuvik.

The uninhabited island of Tindhólmur may offer the single most breathtaking view in the Faroes. Each of its small peaks has its own name: Ytstí, Arni, Lítli, Breiði, and Bogdi. The nearby waterfall at Gásadalur is similarly majestic and Tolkien-esque.

Day 7 | Mykines Island
Mykines is the westernmost of the Faroes. Along its northern coast lies the valley Krokadalur, where great columns of balsalt (called the Stone-wood) tower thirty metres above the ocean. On the western end of the island, connected by a forty-metre footbridge, is the islet Mykinshólmur, with several sea stacks clustered at its western end and a lighthouse dating to 1909. Geologically, this is the oldest part of the Faroes, formed about sixty million years ago by volcanic activity. Mykines has been identified as an Important Bird Area by BirdLife International for its large numbers of puffins and gannets, guillemots, razorbills, northern fulmars, Manx shearwaters, European storm petrels, European shags, and black-legged kittiwakes.

Surtsey was declared a nature reserve for the study of ecological succession in 1965—just two years after it erupted from the sea floor. The volcanic mound has the distinction of being one of the world’s newest islands, having emerged over the course of three and a half years. In the first spring after Surtsey appeared above the sea surface, seeds and other plant parts were found washed up on the newly formed shore. By the spring of 1965, the first higher plant—a sea rocket—was discovered at the shoreline. Now diminishing in size due to erosion, Surtsey was named Iceland’s first UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2008.

Day 9 | Heimaey, Vestmannaeyjar (Westman Islands)
Vestmannaeyjar lies off the south coast of Iceland and comprises fourteen islands in addition to a number of rocks and skerries. Only the archipelago’s largest island, Heimaey, is inhabited—though several of the outlying islands have small cabins used during bird-hunting season. The islands’ name originates from a time when Irish slaves fled Iceland’s south coast; to the first Icelanders (who originated in Norway) the Irish were known as “west men”. Since the early days of Heimaey’s occupation, fishing has been the principal way of life for its inhabitants. Numerous species of seabirds nest in the steep rock faces along the ocean cliffs and high on the bluffs surrounding the island. In 1973, Heimaey was threatened by lava flow that would have closed off its harbour, had it not been for human intervention. Today, Eldfell crater remains warm from subterranean magma.

Day 10 | Southwest Icelandic Coast
Home to some of the youngest lava in the country, the southwest coast is full of natural and geological wonders such as rugged lava fields, craters, and volcanoes. The Reykjanes peninsula is home to the Álfagjá rift valley, which marks the boundary of the Eurasian and North American continental tectonic plates. Today, a bridge spans the two plates, and it was named in honour of Icelandic explorer Leif Erikson, the first known European to have travelled to North America. The south coast is filled with geothermal activity and is home to the Blue Lagoon. Today represents an expedition day in the truest sense, as we will search for opportunities and explore the dramatic island coastline.

Day 11 | Reykjavík
Reykjavík, or “steam bay”, is a cosmopolitan capital city and as much a part of the Icelandic experience as the midnight sun or the fire and ice that creates the island’s landscape. Entirely powered by geothermal energy harnessed from the Earth, the city boasts air that is crisp, clean, and pollution free, as well as thermally heated streets and sidewalks. It is among the cleanest, greenest, and safest cities in the world, and is believed to be the location of the first permanent settlement in Iceland, established in AD 874. The Culture House, which opened in 1909, was originally built to house the National Library and National Archives of Iceland; in 2000, it was remodeled to promote Icelandic national heritage, including treasures like the Poetic Edda, and the Norse Sagas in their original manuscripts.

Today we disembark the Ocean Endeavour and transfer to the airport.
The Ocean Endeavour is the perfect vessel for expedition cruising. Outfitted with twenty Zodiacs, advanced navigation equipment, multiple lounges, and a top deck observation room, she is purpose-built for passenger experiences in remote environments. The Ocean Endeavour boasts a 1B ice class, enabling her to freely explore throughout the Arctic summer. Launched in 1982, she has had numerous upgrades, most recently in 2016.

At 137 metres in length, the Ocean Endeavour has plenty of interior and exterior space. Ample deck space offers comfortable lounge chairs, a swimming pool, two saunas, and even a hot tub! The spacious interior allows for varied workshops and presentations to occur simultaneously. The three lounges aboard the Ocean Endeavour are optimal locations for seminars, events, parties, and conversation.

The Ocean Endeavour’s crew is experienced and friendly. The ship’s shallow draft and manoeuvrability allow her to access isolated fjords, bays, and secluded communities. Enjoy the class and comfort of a boutique hotel while venturing to some of the world’s last great frontiers aboard the Ocean Endeavour!

ACTIVITY LEVEL
Although Adventure Canada endeavours to accommodate any passengers, subject to the specific characteristics of the vessels, accommodations, itineraries and terrain of our excursions, Adventure Canada expeditions necessitate that passengers be in reasonably good health. Zodiac cruises and transfer times can be lengthy. You must be able to climb stairs between decks on the ship. You must also be able to climb the external gangway stairs to transfer between the ship and the Zodiacs. Our guides and ship crew are available to assist you in and out of the Zodiacs, both on shore and at the gangway. Adventure Canada expeditions may involve extensive walking in variable weather conditions over sometimes sandy or uneven terrain. Wherever possible on shore excursions, we break into smaller, guided groups according to interest and physical ability. This may mean one small group going off on a strenuous, two-hour hike on steep terrain, while another explores the area in and around the landing beach, keeping to relatively level terrain and short distances. Generally speaking, once a few people are ready to return to the ship, the Zodiacs are usually available to take you back at the time of your choosing. To inquire about whether our adventures are suitable for you, please do not hesitate to contact us.

ZODIAC CRAFT
Zodiacs are the favoured means of transportation for all our expeditions and, indeed, wherever shallow waters and beaches ring the shoreline. They are stable, versatile craft that cruise at approximately four knots; in windy weather they can make for rather splashy rides. We therefore recommend wearing wet weather gear for Zodiac transfers.
Life preservers are absolutely compulsory and will be provided. Zodiac landings will generally entail disembarking onto rocky or gravelly beaches. The beach landings may be wet, meaning that there may be some spray enroute to shore, and that you may have to step into water up to 25 centimetres / 10 inches deep. Rubber boots will be provided.

MEDICAL FACILITIES
Passenger safety is of utmost importance to us. This expedition is intended for persons in good health, and thus our adventures may not be suitable for those who are not fit for long trips for any reason, including disability, heart, or other health conditions. Should any such condition become apparent, or should passenger safety become a concern, we reserve the right at our sole discretion to decline embarkation prior to the commencement of the tour or to disembark passengers prior to the completion of the tour. Our vessel is not equipped to handle serious medical conditions. Medical and Emergency Evacuation insurance is mandatory. A ship’s doctor will be in attendance in the ship’s small medical clinic to attend only to passengers’ basic health needs. If you require specific medications, please ensure that you bring a supply adequate to last you for the duration of the journey and take care to properly pack them to ensure safe transport. Once aboard ship, we will be travelling in remote communities where prescriptions cannot be replaced. There is a fee for consultation and treatment by the onboard doctor. Any charges will be debited from your onboard account. To inquire about whether our adventures are suitable for you, please do not hesitate to contact us.

GRATUITIES
Our ships’ crew work hard to please, and tips are heartily appreciated.
In fairness to all those who work together to make your trip enjoyable, tips are collected at the end of the voyage and distributed equitably among the crew. Although we leave tip amounts to your discretion, past passengers have asked for a recommended amount. We suggest a rate of $15 USD per day, per passenger. Gratuities will be automatically added to your shipboard account; you may advise the purser onboard if you would like to increase or decrease the tip amount. Adventure Canada staff does not accept tips.

AIRFARE
When purchasing your airline tickets to meet us at our point of departure, please ensure that they are changeable or refundable; Adventure Canada is not responsible for missed connections due to late charter flights or changes / delays / interruptions in the ship’s intended itinerary and will not reimburse you for rebooking fees or new ticket charges incurred.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND PASSAGE CONTRACT TICKET

These Terms and Conditions and Passage Contract Ticket ("Terms and Conditions") are entered into between 750207 Ontario Inc., operating as Adventure Canada (Ontario Registration Nos. 0400 1400 / 5002 1860) ("Adventure Canada") and the passenger (as detailed on the Registration Form).

Adventure Canada is a sub-contractor of the Ocean Endeavour from Endeavour Partners Ltd. ("Endeavour"). In accepting these Terms and Conditions, the passenger is agreeing that these terms and conditions constitute the contract and the ticket for the excursion. Adventure Canada is a wholesaler of Tanzania’s Great Migration Safari. You will receive a separate registration form for this trip.

RELEASE AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

On tours which embark, disembark or call at any port in the United States, Adventure Canada and Endeavour shall be entitled to all the exemptions from and limitations of liability provided for in or authorized by the laws of the United States (including title 46, United States Code Sections 30501 through 30509 and 30511). On all other tours, Adventure Canada and Endeavour shall be entitled to any and all liability limitations, immunities and rights applicable to it under the "Athens Convention Relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea" of 1974, as amended by the "Protocol to the Athens Convention Relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea" of 1990 ("Athens Convention").

In all other situations, the passenger further agrees that neither Adventure Canada, its owners, officers, directors, agents, contractors (including, without limitation, Endeavour and any vessel or other conveyance used in carrying out the tour) and employees shall have any liability or responsibility whatsoever for damages to or loss of property, loss of services, or injury or wrongful death or any other loss, expense, damage, delay or inconvenience which may be sustained or which may be incurred by reason of, or while engaged on, any Adventure Canada tour, whether due to or caused by Adventure Canada or Endeavour’s ownership, maintenance, use, operation or control of any manner of vessel or other conveyance used in carrying out the tour; (ii) the use of transportation or other services by owners, operators, or public carriers for whom Adventure Canada acts only as agent and for whom Adventure Canada is not responsible; (iii) passenger’s lack of proper travel documentation (such as visas, passports, etc.); (iv) any act, omission or event occurring during the time that passengers are not aboard Adventure Canada or Endeavour’s vessel or conveyances; (v) any act of war, insurrection, revolt or other civil uprising or military action occurring in the countries of origin, destination or passage, or changes caused by sickness, weather, strike, quarantine or other causes beyond the control of Adventure Canada or Endeavour; (vi) defects or failures of any aircraft, vessel, automotive vehicle or other equipment or instrumentality under the control of independent suppliers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, should for any reason, Adventure Canada be found liable for any matter, Adventure Canada’s maximum liability, for any reason whatsoever, howsoever caused, will be limited to the amount paid by the passenger to Adventure Canada for its services. Without limitation, Adventure Canada is not responsible for any negligent acts, or acts which are beyond its control, including but not limited to acts of God or force majeure, weather emergencies, breakdown, or failure of diving or mechanical equipment, government actions, inclement weather, sickness, attacks by animals, availability of medical care or the adequacy of the same, criminal activity of any kind, terrorism, war, civil disturbance, sanitary conditions, quality or sanitation of food, quarantine, customs, regulations, epidemics, strikes, hotel overbooking, safety and/or security standards at hotels or other accommodations, or for any other reason beyond the control of Adventure Canada.

Unless otherwise provided for in these Terms and Conditions, the passenger hereby waives any claim it may have against Adventure Canada, its owners, officers, directors, agents, contractors (including, without limitation, Endeavour and any vessel or other conveyance used in carrying out the tour) and employees for any such damage, loss or injury.

The passenger specifically understands and agrees that the passenger is releasing, discharging and waiving any claims or actions that the passenger may have presently or in the future for the negligent acts or conduct of Adventure Canada, its owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors (including, without limitation, the carrier) and/or employees.

Regardless of the situation or circumstances giving rise to a claim, the passenger waives any right to seek indirect, special, consequential, punitive or exemplary damages against Adventure Canada, its owners, officers, directors, agents, contractors (including, without limitation, the carrier) and employees, for any reason whatsoever.

In case of a medical problem arising during the voyage, either on board or on shore, which results in costs for evacuation, use of aircraft or repatriation, the responsibility for payment of these costs belongs solely to the passenger.

COMPENSATION

Compensation for personal injury is limited in accordance with the provisions of any applicable International Conventions. These include, for example, in the course of road travel, air travel, rail travel, sea travel, or hotel accommodation and are limited to the provisions of, respectively, the Geneva Convention 1973, the Warsaw Convention as amended by The Hague Protocol 1955, the 1961 Berne Convention, the 1974 Athens Convention and the 1962 Paris Convention.

The passenger agrees to honestly complete the personal information request from Adventure Canada via its website or by requesting paper copies, prior to departure. The passenger has carefully read the Terms and Conditions set out herein as well as the materials regarding the tour provided by Adventure Canada and is aware that such tour involves the risk of personal injury or death and damage or loss of property. The passenger affirms that he/she has not received or relied on any oral or written representation of Adventure Canada as a basis for agreeing to the release contained in these Terms and Conditions, and acknowledges that they have had the opportunity to seek independent legal advice prior to entering this contract.

Adventure Canada and Endeavour shall be entitled to inspect passengers and their luggage for security purposes and the passenger hereby acknowledges that this may involve a physical search of the passenger and/or his/her property.

Should any passenger not arrive on board the vessel at a scheduled time of departure, Adventure Canada shall have no liability for any delay or interruption in planned itinerary of the vessel and Adventure Canada shall have the right, but shall not be obliged, to continue with the cruise on its planned itinerary.
DISCOVERY FUND

We believe in sustainable social and environmental practices, and commit to upholding standards of responsible travel. We encourage our partners to do the same.

In 1996, Adventure Canada established the Discovery Fund to help strengthen sustainable initiatives and projects in the regions to which we travel. Supported by a $250 USD fee added to the price of each tour sold, the Discovery Fund allows passengers to take an active role in the betterment of our world.

The Discovery Fund Fee directly assists local and national organizations in social and economic community development in addition to environmental and wildlife preservation. Each year, we endeavour to extend our support to both high profile and grassroots ventures.

By travelling with Adventure Canada, you are helping ensure that our planet’s irreplaceable treasures will endure for generations to come!

Thank You!
