A bold new adventure

Dear travellers,

As a ROM supporter, you know the value of expanding your horizons, both with travel, and with lifelong learning. That's why the ROM is delighted to work in partnership with Adventure Canada to offer our supporters unique travel and learning opportunities.

Adventure Canada's expedition cruises combine remote destinations, stimulating activities and a lively atmosphere, perfectly suited to the style and interests of our cherished supporters.

This year's Adventure Canada ROM excursion is no exception—but it is exceptional! The Arctic Explorer voyage, aboard the beautifully appointed vessel Ocean Endeavour is the trip of a lifetime for those bold seekers whose compass points North.

The aptly named Arctic Explorer itinerary showcases Inuit culture, extraordinary bird, polar bear and sea mammal opportunities, stunning coastal vistas, and reflective moments spent in the tracks of the great Arctic explorers.

Highlights include Arctic games and crafts in Mittimitalik (Pond Inlet), calving glaciers at Illulisat, Greenland, the Inuit-initiated whale sanctuary at Niginganik, and the haunting Franklin expedition graves at Beechey Island.

What better way to see the Far North – and support the ROM – than this classic northern expedition: Arctic Explorer. Hope to see you aboard!

Arctic Explorer

August 9 - August 20, 2015 aboard the Ocean Endeavour

This epic adventure begins at the entrance to the Northwest Passage. We'll visit the final resting place of the ill-fated Franklin Expedition at Beechey Island and search for polar bears and walrus in far northern Baffin Island. At Mittimatalik (Pond Inlet), our hosts will welcome us with throat-singing and Inuit games, before we explore Baffin's mighty fiords. We'll seek bowhead whales in Ninginganiq (Isabella Bay)— the world's first Inuit-initiated whale sanctuary.

Crossing Davis Strait, we'll be met by Greenland's stirring icescape. There, we'll zip among the freshly calved bergs off Ilulissat in our Zodiacs, marvel at Uummannaq's heart-shaped mountain, and hike around Itilleq Fjord. Spectacular Kangerlussuaq Fjord makes a glorious finale to our trip.

The Adventure Canada Experience

Travelling with Adventure Canada is unlike any other travel experience—and not just because of our incredible destinations. We pride ourselves on enhancing our adventures, both on and off the ship.

Our shipboard programming is both fun and educational. We host presentations, debates and workshops, carefully planned to provide perspective and understanding. Our expedition staff—experts in their respective fields— are approachable, available on deck and always onshore during excursions. Staff and passengers dine together for lively, informative dinner conversations. We believe laughter should be a part of every experience.

Our unique mix of entertainment and humour is integral to our evening concerts, trivia nights, theme dinners and dances.

Each day’s excursions are thoughtfully planned to make the most of the local environment and conditions. Hiking, wildlife viewing, historic sites, community visits and Zodiac cruising are regular activities. Engaging presentations and hands-on activities are offered each day; these may range from photography and print making workshops, to examinations of ancient people and current events. You choose what you do, or don’t, participate in.

In accepting these terms and conditions, the passenger is agreeing that these terms and conditions shall also serve as the Passage Contract Ticket.

RELEASE AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The passenger hereby agrees to these terms and conditions and in consideration of the services and arrangements provided by Adventure Canada, further agrees that neither Adventure Canada nor its owners, officers, directors, agents, contractors (including, without limitation, the carrier) and employees shall have any liability or responsibility whatsoever for damages to or loss of property, loss of services, or injury or wrongful death or any other loss, expense, damage, delay or inconvenience which may be sustained or which may be incurred by reason of, or while engaged on, any Adventure Canada tour, whether due to Adventure Canada or the carrier's ownership, maintenance, use, operation or control of any manner of conveyance used in carrying out the tour; (ii) the use of transportation or other services of carrier, owners, operators, or public carriers for whom Adventure Canada acts only as agent and for whom Adventure Canada is not responsible; (iii) passenger's lack of proper travel documentation (such as visas, passports, etc.); (iv) any act, omission or event occurring during the time that passengers are not aboard Adventure Canada carriers or conveyances; (v) any act of war, insurrection, revolt or other civil uprising or military action occurring in the countries of origin, destination or passage, or changes caused by sickness, weather, strike, quarantine or other causes beyond the control of Adventure Canada or carrier or (vi) defects or failures of any aircraft, vessel, automotive vehicle or other equipment or instrumentality under the control of independent suppliers. If for any reason, Adventure Canada is ever found liable for any matter, Adventure Canada's maximum liability, for any reason whatsoever, will be limited to the amount paid to Adventure Canada for its services. Without limitation, Adventure Canada is not responsible for any negligent acts, or acts which are beyond its control, including but not limited to acts of God or force majeure, weather emergencies, breakdown, or failure of diving or mechanical equipment, government actions, inclement weather, sickness, attacks by animals, availability of medical care or the adequacy of the same, criminal activity of any kind, terrorism, war, civil disturbance, sanitary conditions, quality or sanitation of food, quarantine, customs, regulations, epidemics, strikes, hotel overbooking, safety and/or security standards at hotels or other accommodations, or for any other reason beyond the control of Adventure Canada.

The passenger hereby waives any claim it may have against Adventure Canada, its owners, officers, directors, agents, contractors (including, without limitation, the carrier) and employees for any such damage, loss or injury. Adventure Canada acts only as agent for all services described herein. Adventure Canada and its sponsoring organizations do not assume any responsibility or liability whatsoever for any claims, damages, expenses or other financial loss related to the operation of this tour.

The passenger specifically understands and agrees that the passenger is releasing, discharging and waiving any claims or actions that the passenger may have presently or in the future for the negligent acts or conduct of adventure Canada, its owners, directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors (including, without limitation, the carrier) and/or employees.

Regardless of the situation or circumstances giving rise to a claim, the passenger waives any right to seek indirect, special, consequential, punitive or exemplary damages against Adventure Canada, its owners, officers, directors, agents, contractors (including, without limitation, the carrier) and employees, for any reason whatsoever.

On tours which neither embark, disembark nor call at any port in the United States, Adventure Canada and the carrier shall be entitled to any and all liability limitations, immunities and rights applicable to it under the "Athens Convention Relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea" of 1974, as well as the "Protocol to the Athens Convention Relating to the Carriage of Passengers and their Luggage by Sea" of 1976 ("Athens Convention"). The Athens Convention limits the carrier's liability for death or personal injury to a passenger to no more than 46,666 special drawing rights as defined therein (approximately U.S. $70,000). In addition, and on all other tours, all the exemptions from and limitations of liability provided in or authorized by the laws of the United States (including title 46, United States Code Sections 30501 through 30509 and 30511) will apply.

INSURANCE

Due to the nature of the tour in which the passenger will be participating, passengers should have in place prior to departure, comprehensive insurance coverage including without limitation medical, emergency evacuation, trip cancellation and interruption, accident and baggage insurance. Adventure Canada strongly advises all passengers to obtain travel insurance at the time of deposit. If the passenger has not yet purchased his/her commercial airfare the passenger may increase his/her insurance coverage afterwards. By not purchasing coverage at the time of booking, the passenger is not fully covered. Adventure Canada's cancellation terms apply to all passengers. Emergency Medical and Evacuation Insurance is mandatory for participation in all Adventure Canada expeditions and may be purchased through Adventure Canada at the time of booking. Evidence of policy documentation will be required. All passengers must carry a minimum of $75,000 USD per person emergency medical and evacuation coverage. This may not cover the full cost of a medical emergency. Additional expenses are the full responsibility of the passenger. Any losses sustained by the passenger as a result of the passenger failing to obtain proper insurance coverage shall be the sole responsibility of the passenger. For full coverage, including cancellation coverage prior to departure, passengers are strongly recommended to obtain insurance at the time of deposit.

PASSPORTS & VISAS

PASSPORTS ARE MANDATORY. Passengers are responsible for obtaining personal Visas, passports, health certificates, other required documents and inoculations if required at their own expense. Entry to another country may be refused even if the required information and travel documents are complete.

ACTIVITY LEVEL

Adventure Canada expeditions are intended for people in reasonably good health. Zodiac cruises and transfer times can be lengthy. There are no elevators on board ship, and the passenger must be able to climb stairs between decks. The passenger must also be able to climb the external gangway stairs to transfer between the ship and the Zodiacs. Adventure Canada's guides and ship crew are available to assist passengers in and out of the Zodiacs, both on shore and at the gangway. Adventure Canada expeditions may involve extensive walking in variable weather over sometimes sandy or uneven terrain. Wherever possible on shore excursions, Adventure Canada breaks into smaller, guided groups according to interest and physical ability. This may mean one small group going off on a strenuous, two hour hike on steep terrain, while another explores the area in and around the landing beach, keeping to relatively level terrain and short distances. Generally speaking, once a few people are ready to return to the ship, the Zodiacs are usually available to take passengers back at the time of their choosing.

ZODIAC CRAFT

Zodiacs are the favoured means of transportation in the Arctic for all Adventure Canada expeditions and, indeed, wherever shallow waters and beaches ring the shoreline. They are stable, versatile craft which cruise at an approximate speed of four knots, and in windy weather can make for rather splashy rides. Adventure Canada therefore recommends wearing wet weather gear for Zodiac transfers. Life preservers are absolutely compulsory. Zodiac landings will generally entail disembarking onto rocky or gravelly beaches. The beach landings may be wet, meaning that there may be some spray en route to shore, and that passengers may have to step into water up to 25 cm/10 inches deep. Rubber boots are highly recommended.

MEDICAL FACILITIES

This expedition is intended for persons in good health. Passengers, who are not fit for long trips for any reason, including disability, heart or other health conditions, are advised not to join the tour. Should any such condition become apparent, Adventure Canada reserves the right to decline embarkation. Adventure Canada's vessel is not equipped to handle serious medical conditions.

A ship's doctor will be in attendance in the ship's small medical clinic on most cruises to administer to passengers' basic health needs. If the passenger requires specific medications, please ensure that he/she brings a supply adequate to last the passenger for the duration of the journey. Any applicable fee for medical services rendered or medicines supplied or transportation to on-shore medical facilities will be debited to the passenger's account.

ONBOARD ACCOUNT

Each passenger shall have an on-board account for the payment of personal expenses whilst on the tour which shall include but not be limited to payment for the use of all facilities and services, for which these are payable, as well as for all on-board purchases of beverages, goods, and shore excursions. The on-board currency of tariff and payment for all such facilities, services and purchases is the U.S. Dollar. GRATUITIES

The ship's crew work hard to please and tips are heartily appreciated. In fairness to all of those who work together to make the passengers cruise enjoyable, tips are collected at the end of the voyage and distributed equitably among the crew. Although Adventure Canada leaves tip amounts to the discretion of passengers, in the past many passengers have asked for a recommended amount. Adventure Canada suggests a rate of $15USD per day, per passenger, as a kind and generous offering. Gratuities will be automatically added to the passenger's shipboard account. The passenger may advise the purser onboard if the passenger would like to increase or decrease the tip amount. Adventure Canada staff does not accept tips.
