

ROM WOMEN INITIATIVE

EVENTS FOR 2025

---

June 26

Patrons' Opening of Saints, Sinners, Lovers, and Fools

Experience this extraordinary exhibition before it opens to the public. Curated by Chloe Pelletier, guest curator at ROM, this exhibition provides a captivating window into the golden age of Flemish art.

September 26

Supporters' Toast – Crawford Lake: The Golden Spike

Raise a glass with fellow supporters and exhibition curators at this afternoon reception and exhibition tour, as we celebrate the remarkable women.

October 9

Patrons' Opening of Sharks

Terrifying and terrific, this immersive exhibition explores one of nature's most formidable predators. Join fellow Patrons for an exclusive reception and preview before the exhibition opens to the public.

November 24

Curator Conversation

Join us for a moderated conversation with two of ROM's leading women curators as they share insights into their collections and reflect on the evolving role of museums in today's world.

And more!

In addition to the core events, ROM organizes special moments for members of ROM's Women Initiative to engage deeply with the Museum and its curators throughout the year.

Event dates are subject to change.
