A Letter from Steven Latanville

A Voyage Through Time: Explore Canada's Coastal History and Cultural Heritage

Join fellow Museum patrons on a remarkable 12-day journey that brings the history, culture, and natural beauty of Newfoundland to life. Sailing onboard the small ship "Ocean Nova", beginning and ending in St. John's, this curated itinerary offers a deep dive into the stories, landscapes, and communities that have shaped the North Atlantic region for centuries. From ancient Norse settlements to living Indigenous cultures and remote fishing villages, each destination is an opportunity to engage with the past and the present in meaningful and memorable ways.

Step Into History, Guided by Experts

This enriching voyage includes a visit to France's last foothold in North America, Saint Pierre, along with such UNESCO World Heritage sites as Gros Morne National Park and L'Anse aux Meadows, the first known presence of Europeans in the Americas and the only authenticated Viking site on the continent. You'll explore places that are rarely accessible to the public, including the isolated outport of Francois, and learn about the vibrant Mi'kmaq culture in Miawpukek. In the company of knowledgeable guides and fellow cultural enthusiasts, you'll experience a thoughtful, immersive exploration of Atlantic Canada's diverse heritage.

Travel with Purpose, Return with Perspective

Designed for those who value education, preservation, and meaningful travel, this expedition is more than a trip. It's a journey of discovery. We invite you to travel alongside fellow Museum supporters as we sail through history, one breathtaking coastal stop at a time.

Daily Itinerary

Day 1 St. John's, NL, Canada Begin your Adventure

Welcome to St. John's, Newfoundland's historic, vibrant capital. Sailing out of the port of St. John's, Signal Hill keeps watch as we exit the world-famous Narrows. The charming houses of the Battery are always a hit with shutterbugs. Watch for whales and seabirds as we sail!

Day 2 Saint Pierre, France Visit European Shops and Cafés

Explore Saint Pierre, the last bastion of France's colonies in North America, and is still a French territory today. The colourful and charming shops and residences of the town of Saint Pierre reveal the island's unique historical character.

French food, wine, clothing, and culture are all on offer here. The sweets at the local cafés and bakeries are in high demand. Saint Pierre offers a taste of European living, just a short sail from the coast of Newfoundland.

Day 3 Miawpukek (Conne River) Experience Mi'kmaq Culture

The First Nations community of Miawpukek became a permanent settlement sometime around 1822. Before then, it was one of many semi-permanent camps used by the Mi'kmaq people, who had traditionally travelled nomadically throughout the east coast of Canada.

Since its establishment as a reserve in 1987, Miawpukek has successfully bridged traditional knowledge and contemporary practice. We will receive a formal welcome from local leaders and have a chance to explore this special community.

Day 4 Francois

Kick up a Jig at a Kitchen Party

The wild and windswept coast of southern Newfoundland is home to a few remaining outport communities. Experience the warm hospitality and adventurous spirit of Francois, a quaint and picturesque fishing village, with colourful homes and buildings that offer visitors a glimpse into Newfoundland's coastal lifestyle.

Explore the town and hike to stunning lookout points and waterfalls. A day in Francois will stimulate your soul and remind you of the importance of good neighbours, stories, and music.

After a day of adventure, head to the community hall for an oversized kitchen party with treats, drinks, and dancing. Rediscover a bit of your own spirit, through the essence of Newfoundland's culture in this charming and resilient community.

Day 5 Southern Coast

Explore Scenic Coastlines

There are many choices of unique bays and coves to explore via Zodiac or land excursions. Along the coast, the geology is outstanding, and the plant life is gorgeous. We'll be on the watch for wildlife, too. We'll make the most of every chance to explore this beautiful and remote coast.

Day 6 and 7 Gros Morne National Park and Woody Point

Hike through Incredible Geology

Gros Morne National Park's Tablelands, a 600-metre (1,967-feet) plateau, forms one of the world's best examples of exposed mantle. Normally found below the Earth's crust, the mineral-rich rocks support very little life, making the Tablelands an eerie landscape.

Various walking and hiking options will be available. Views of Bonne Bay are spectacular. Gros Morne's interpretation centre is excellent, and the town of Woody Point is a delight to discover.

Day 8 Red Bay

Soak in Basque Whaling History

The Red Bay Basque Whaling Station became a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2013. Basque whalers operated out of the Red Bay harbour in the 1500s. This was North America's first export industry.

At the interpretation centre at Red Bay, we will find tools, personal items, and navigational instruments recovered from the wreck of the whaling ship San Juan. The ship was lost in a storm in 1565 and found centuries later submerged in the harbour. We'll visit nearby Saddle Island to learn the history of the whaling industry.

Day 9 L'Anse aux Meadows

Immerse Yourself in Viking Archaeology

L'Anse aux Meadows, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is the only authenticated Norse settlement in North America. The archaeological remains found here in 1960 date to approximately 1000 CE. Amazingly, the location was first established by a close reading of the Viking sagas.

Today, a superb interpretation centre and several reconstructed Norse-style sod buildings make L'Anse aux Meadows a must-see for any visitor to Newfoundland.

Day 10 and 11 Northeast Coast Visit Picturesque Villages and Charming Communities

The northeast coast of Newfoundland is known for the dozens of picturesque villages that dot its rocky shores, and we'll find harbour in one of these unique communities. Upon arrival, we will enjoy a characteristically warm Newfoundland welcome.

Photographers will have their work cut out for them, as they capture all the special charm of classic island communities and stunning coastlines.

Day 11 St. John's, NL, Canada Wave a Fond Farewell

On the final day of our expedition, we will sail back through the Narrows and into St. John's harbour. We will say our farewells and the expedition team will be on hand to assist you with luggage and transportation arrangements.
