

Classic Peru Plus

October 13 to 27, 2018

Launch in Lima where the Spanish maintained a vice-royalty for 300 years. Admire the historic city centre, scenic oceanside and world class cuisine. In Lima's outstanding museums, prepare for our journey north to explore the earliest cultures of Peru, preceding the Incas by centuries. Many sites here were undiscovered until recently. Travel with archaeologist Giles Spence Morrow who will provide his insights and behind-the-scenes access.

We fly to Trujillo to see the expressive ceramics of the Moche people. Nearby, we walk through the vast adobe city of Chan Chan, capital of the ancient Chimú kingdom.

En route to Chiclayo to see the Royal Tombs of Sipán, we meet the tattooed mummy priestess at the new Museo Cao. Flying southward via Lima to Cusco, we next visit circular Incan terraces and charming Andean villages to reach the Sacred Valley. We rest at our Relais & Châteaux hotel, a prelude to the exciting vistadome train ride up the Urubamba River gorge to the Inca citadel, Machu Picchu, with its mysterious masonry and renowned panoramic views. We end our tour exploring the treasures of Cusco, the ancient Incan capital conquered in 1533, then return to Lima for our flight home.
