

Isabel Alves-Vettoretto

Vice President, Finance, MARANT Construction Limited

Together with her husband, Isabel Alves-Vettoretto has established one of Canada's most successful construction management firms, MARANT, whose purpose is to build a better future for the people and communities it serves.

She has been an active member in Toronto's business and charitable sectors for over 20 years and is passionate about the arts and leaving a legacy for the country. She has served on the Board of the ROM since 2018 and is incredibly proud of her part in the establishment of the Isabel and Gino Vettoretto Curatorship of North American Archaeology.

Isabel supports many charitable and non-profit organizations including the ROM, SickKids Foundation, Ride to Conquer Cancer, and The Toronto Santa Claus Parade.

In addition to being a successful executive leader, Isabel is also a dedicated wife, proud mother, lover of dogs, and an avid Miniature Enthusiast.
